

MEDLIFE SERVICE LEARNING TRIPS: Passport and Visa Requirements

ECUADOR PARTICIPANTS

Citizens of any country in the world can enter Ecuador for a period of up to 90 days. A passport valid at least six months longer than you intend to stay in Ecuador is enough to get a Tourist Visa (which you receive in Ecuador at the border or at the airport).

PERU PARTICIPANTS

Citizens of the countries in the listing below do NOT need to get a visa at an embassy or consulate before entering Peru. A passport valid at least six months longer than you intend to stay in Peru is enough to get a Tourist Visa (which you receive in Peru at the border or at the airport):

- North America: Citizens of the United States and Canada
- Central America: Citizens of most Central American countries (exception Costa Rica, Cuba, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua, Panama)
- South America: Citizens of all South American countries
- Europe: Citizens of all countries within the European Union and Switzerland
- Africa: Only citizens of South Africa
- Asia: Citizens of Brunei, Hong Kong, Israel, Japan, Malaysia, Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, South Korea and Taiwan
- Oceania: Citizens of Australia and New Zealand

If you are not a citizen of one of the countries listed above, you will need a visa to enter Peru. Please check with the Peruvian embassy or consulate nearest to your place of residence.

*Note: As Visa and Entry Requirements can change without prior notice, we recommend to check the current regulations before your trip to Peru with the nearest Peruvian Consulate or Embassies

TANZANIA PARTICIPANTS

Citizens of any country in the world can enter Tanzania for a period of up to 90 days. A passport valid at least six months longer than you intend to stay in Tanzania is enough to get a Tourist Visa which you receive in Tanzania at the border or at the airport. If you carry a passport from another country check with your local embassy to see if you require a sponsor to enter the country.

After entering Tanzania with a tourist VISA, MEDLIFE will have pre-applied for your CTA (Conducting a Temporary Assignment) Permit. This permit costs $200. This permit gives the MEDLIFE participant the permission of the Tanzanian government to conduct volunteer work within Tanzania.
